Attendance:

Because Preservants is a class that prepares you to be a servant, every lecture is full of new important information. Therefore, attendance is worth 20% of your monthly grade. Meaning if you are doing the work, but have a weak attendance you still would not be passing. Whoever will miss 4 classes in a row, will be suspended from the class till he/she sits with Abouna and tell him a reason. If you have to miss class you MUST let one of the servants know that you wouldn't be able to attend the class, with providing a reason.
